Dear Brethren:

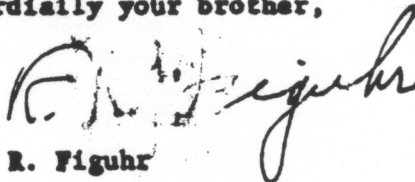

I received your recent letter in which you request that the full report of the five individuals who read your manuscript independently be sent to you. I have sent you a synopsis of their report. I am not sure that much would be gained by sending the entire report of these men. One or two have said some confidential things that perhaps just as well not be publicized.

You will be glad to know that a new book is in preparation, entitled "By Faith Alone," written by Pastor Norval Pease of the Seminary. Pastor Pease is a good scholar, careful thinker and a sound theologian. This book relates the attitude of our people preceding 1888, during 1888, and following 1888 to the great fundamental doctrine of Justification by Faith. I feel it is quite an answer to the question that you raise with regard to the 1888 meeting. This book should be coming out shortly as it is being set in type at the Pacific Press now.

We think of you brethren working in the turbulent Southern African Division, and pray that the Lord may watch over you and all our workers there so that no harm will come to our laborers, nor to the work.

With kind regards, I remain

Cordially your brother,

RRF v
