Elder R. J. Wieland
425 North Imperial
Brawley, Calif.

Dear Brother Wieland:

I was led to think of you because of having completed the manuscript of this new book, "Eternal Verities Triumphant," or "The Hand That Led Us."

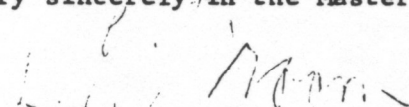

This has been one of the most painstaking and exacting pieces of investigation and writing in which I have ever engaged. It calls for thoroughness, for conscientious spiritual discernment, for we are dealing with the very lifestream of this Movement. The Lord has very greatly blessed.

I am happy to have the strong support of our present administration--Elder Pierson, Elder Neal Wilson, and a score of other leaders.

Brother Wieland, how wonderful it would be if we could come to see eye to eye on this leading hand of God, if you could give your strength to creating unity and advancing the Cause we both love. I honestly believe that if you had had access to all the facts that I have had, if you could have known men like A. G. Daniells as I knew him, and Oliver Montgomery, and these many other men, if you could have gathered these affidavits of men actually present in the Conference of 1888--I think there are some twenty-six affidavits I obtained--and could have traced through, as I have traced, the relationship of our leadership immediately following, and on through, that you would have essentially the same viewpoint and conviction that I have.

I earnestly hope that you can still come to see things that way. One of these days this book will be out, and you will have the chance to read the presentation, the portrayal, there given. Pray for the open mind, that you may see light as it appears.

Very sincerely in the Master's service,

L. E. Froom
