Dear Brother Short,

Movement of Destiny is on its way to you. I do not know how long it takes for surface transit to bring the book like this.

I shall be very much interested in your reaction when you have had a chance to receive it and to read it, which I trust you will do with an open mind. I have put in forty years in the most intensive study, gathering from every source, checking with every possible means of identification, and am trying honestly and faithfully to present the picture as I have found it from all the factors to which I suppose no one else has ever had the full access.

I will be interested, of course, in your reaction.

Faithfully yours in service,

L. E. Froom
